TOTAL INVOLVEMENT...IN THE SPIRIT OF '76

"Total Involvement...In the Spirit of '76" is the theme of the 29th Triennial Gallaudet College Alumni Association Reunion which gets underway on campus this Sunday, June 13. An estimated 300-400 people will be participating in the week long program.

A complete listing of activities and fees can be obtained from the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. The following is a run down of some of the many exciting events:

Photography and Art Exhibit will run all week in the Washburn Arts Center from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A variety of Learning Experiences in the form of small workshops and seminars in subjects which range from restoring old clothes to teaching history to deaf students to women's role today will be conducted throughout the week.

Miss Gallaudet Variety Show at 7:30 p.m. on June 13, in the Auditorium.

Dinner Forum on June 15, in the SUL at 6 p.m. (ticket necessary)

Alumni Variety Show in the Auditorium on June 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Wine and Cheese Sampling Party in the SUL from 3-5 p.m. on June 17. ($3 payable at the door)

A gala Bicentennial musical, "1776" in the Auditorium on June 17, at 8 p.m. (ticket necessary)

Opening of the Washburn Room in the Arts Center on June 18, at 4 p.m.

Banquet and Awards Program at 7 p.m. in the SUL. (ticket necessary).

BALL TO BENEFIT GALLAUDET

A formal ball, sponsored by the Beethoven Society, will be held on June 18, at 10 p.m. at the new Hyatt Regency Hotel on Capitol Hill. Champagne and midnight crepes will highlight the festivities. Tickets are $20 per person and can be obtained by contacting the Development Office.

Sixty percent of the proceeds will benefit the College's International Center on Deafness. The remaining funds will be given to the Washington Ear Radio Program and the Beethoven Society.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Judy LeNard has been appointed to fill the position of director, Division of Development and Evaluation at Kendall.
--"Community Mental Health Services for the Deaf" was the topic of an address which Allen Sussman presented last month at the Orthopsychiatric Workshop at St. Elizabeths Hospital.
--James Pickett is at the University of Washington this week evaluating a Public Health Service grant proposal on "Tactual Speech Aids and Associated Training."
--Kudos to Doin Hicks for receiving the 1976 Distinguished Alumnus Award of Arkansas College at the College's Commencement Exercises on May 23.
--Bob Davila will address the graduating class at the New York School for the Deaf in White Plains.

GET INTO THE BICENTENNIAL SPIRIT

Once again, Gallaudet College has been asked to join in the D.C. Bicentennial Commission's City Celebration which will be held this year on Saturday, June 12 and 13, on the S.W. Waterfront near Arena Stage Theatre. This fun event will feature the diversity of life which is found in our city through performing arts,
craft demonstrations, international foods and agency exhibits. The festival will run from noon to 7 p.m. on both days.

The College will have a booth displaying materials on the LOOK OF SOUND as well as audio-visual presentations. Kendall School will sponsor a craft demonstration for children.

The Gallaudet Dancers will be performing on the open air dance stage on Sunday at 3:30, and Good Vibrations will give a show in Kreeger Theatre on Saturday at 4:30.

AROUND AND ABOUT

--Thirteen administrators and teachers
will join the Center for Continuing Education for a four week internship program beginning on June 14. The program is designed to give the interns skills necessary to implement and manage adult education programs in their home states.
--The College tennis courts are only open to Gallaudet students, faculty, staff
and their guests.
--The D.C. Public Library has appointed Alice Hagemeyer to a new position of community librarian for the deaf. She can be reached on 727-2255 (TTY) or 727-1186 (voice).
--The Black Deaf Caucus will be among the exhibitors at "Heritage Days: The Black Perspective," a Bicentennial program
sponsored by the alumni of Storer College, a pioneer Black university. It will be staged at Harpers Ferry, West Virginia,
on June 18-20.
--If you are interested in house sitting in Mt. Rainer, Maryland, from June 27-
July 24, contact Bob Bergan at MSSD.

ETCHINGS TO BE PERMANENTLY DISPLAYED

A series of etchings by Cadwallader Washburn, noted artist and alumnus of Gallaudet College, will be permanently displayed in the Washburn Arts Center.

These pieces which have been given to the College by Mrs. Margaret Washburn will be housed in the Washburn Room off of the lobby of the Arts Center.

The room will be officially opened with a reception on June 18, at 4 p.m.
All are welcome.
